PRIZES OFFERED

Delta Sigma Sponsors Contest; Judges To Decide On Winners

"The Kinds of Education Now Needed to Forward National Sobriety" is the title of a public speaking contest to be held in the Frederic Burk Auditorium Thursday, April 17 at eleven o'clock. The contest is sponsored by the Women's Christian Temperance Union, and is being supervised at S. T. C., by Delta Sigma, the debating society.

Money, Prizes Offered

Local winners of first, second, third, and fourth places will receive prizes of ten, seven, five, and three dollars respectively. The winner of first place will be eligible to represent the college in a statewide competition on the same subject. The winner in the state contest will receive twenty-five dollars.

Speeches will be limited to a few minutes. The speeches will be judged from the standpoints of clearness of thought, accuracy of statement, and interest in the subject assigned. The judges, members of the S. T. C. faculty, are the following: Dr. Elias T. Arnesen, Dr. Garland Ethel, and Mr. Frank Fenton.

Entrance Is Urged

S. T. C. must have at least ten students in the local contest. In order that the eligibility of the college to participate will be assured, all students who are interested should immediately notify Dorothy Doelker, manager of the contest. Participants will be furnished with pamphlets dealing with the subject assigned. Tomorrow, Thursday, April 9, has been set as the last day for entrance to the contest.

The following is a tentative list of students who have entered the contest: Corinne Boylan, Sylvia Burke, Ralph Cioffi, Alta Dyer, George Gillespie, Alice Grimwood, Beatrice Harms, Janet Harrington, Phyliss Haley, Miss Johnson, and Jane Nova.

A similar contest was held last year. That contest was won by the president of Delta Sigma, Alice Heim, who later received honorable mention in the statewide competition at Modesto.

Sorority To Hold Tea In Frederic Burk Wednesday

Many Students Are To Enact Attractive Numbers At Social Affair

The members of the Kappa Delta Tau sorority are giving a tea in the auditorium of the Frederic Burk school, Wednesday April 15 from 3:30 to 5:30. Mrs. Sarah Scott, sponsor of the sorority, with the aid of the assistant sponsors Mrs. Bridge and Mrs. Freeman, will receive the guests. Other hostesses are Del Mylieus, Phylis Haley, Dot Williamson, Vivian Brewer, and Betty Fitch.

S. SCOTT

"Troika," "Utuska," and "Lujock," Russian folk dances, will be performed on the floor of the auditorium by the whole group. Hollande Robinsons' "The Somnambulist" will be presented on the stage. The costume for this dance will be a loose costume of canary yellow cheese cloth, a Juliet cap of silver, and sleeves of silver cloth. The "Arab Dance" by Tschaikowsky and "Lotus Land" by Cyril Scott will be presented on the stage by the whole group. "Excentrique," also by Hollande Robinson, will be performed in black oilcloth costumes by the whole group. Greigs' "At Thy Feet," a religious and romantic medieval number, will be performed by Peggy Carroll. "Figure Against Storm," Chopins' Opus 28 No. 22, will be danced by Evangeline Richards.

The women who will be in the group dances are Margie Bannister, Sylvia Burke, Peggy Carroll, Edith Duncan, Ruth Knutson, Florence Moran, Margaret Petray, Evelyn Rafter, Evangeline Richards, Rachael Smith, Elsie Shulte, and Marjorie Thomson.

Phylis Haley will paint the programs which have been designed by Blossom Olmstead. Miss Spangenberg, pianist for the Natural Dancing class, will play the musical accompaniment. Mrs. Freeman, assistant sponsor of the club, has been playing the musical accompaniment for the practices.

LOVING CUP MADE AWARD AT DANCE

With a silver loving cup—practically the first ever awarded at a class dance—as prize for the best collegiate dance, the high freshman class held an informal dance in the Terrace Room of the Fairmont Hotel, April 4. Besides the novelty of the cup, there was the equally novel idea of a swim between dances. The Fairmont Plunge, adjacent to the Terrace Room, was open to the use of the dancers.

President Don Horner and Vice-president George Gillespie were in charge of the entire affair; and they worked diligently to make the dance successful. Free bids were accorded to those class members who came to room A210 March 30 and April at noon. Bids were on sale in the book store for the remainder of the student body.

FROM MORN TO NIGHT

S. T. C. College Students Will Model Many Styles

Dame Fashion's many modes and models will be displayed at the college when the Parent Faculty Club presents its delightful Fashion Review on April 10th, for the benefit of the Scholarship Loan Fund. Miss Jessie E. Culbert, a professional buyer, is exhibiting all of the latest modern styles in women's dress in the Frederic Burk auditorium at this time. These styles will include everything from pajamas, through sport clothes and tea dresses, to formal evening gowns. In addition to the fashion show, there will be several singing and dancing numbers, presented by the Glee Club members and others, while the Parent Faculty Club will present a fortune teller. The parents will also have charge of some candy booths in which they will sell homemade candy.

The Fashion Show has been planned to illustrate a typical day at college. It will first show the models as they awake in the morning clad in the latest style pajamas, and then the girls will picture what the well-dressed collegienne wears when coming to college. At the college the girls indulge in sports with the W. A. A., and this indulgence permits them to exhibit a large assortment of tennis and golf dresses. Later in the day, the models attend a tea, and a very fine collection of the Sunday night dresses, which are appropriate for teas, will be shown. The college day ends when the girls attend a formal ball in correct formal garb. This supposed ball will furnish an opportunity to exhibit the very latest in exquisite formal evening gowns. The entire fashion array will be extremely lovely, for all of the models have been gowned in styles and colors that will best suit their individual types.

The girls who are to do the modeling of the dresses were chosen from the students of State Teachers College. Miss Culbert came to the college Tuesday, March 31, for the purpose of choosing her models, and since then she has successfully instructed the favored few in the fine art of modeling.

The showing of these many models will be interspersed with several novelty numbers. Among them is a very unique tennis dance, and the Glee Club numbers, "I'm looking for a boy like you," and "So long Mary."

The entire program will be presented twice—once on Friday afternoon at 2:30 P. M., and again in the evening at 8:00 P. M. The tickets for the Fashion Review will probably be on sale in the Book Store. The prices are as follows: adults, fifty cents; college students, twenty-five cents if they show their student body cards; and Frederic Burk pupils, ten cents.

The Fashion Review is being sponsored by the Parent Faculty Club in order to raise money for a Scholarship Loan Fund for the students of State Teachers' College. The club has planned to start this fund because they have the student welfare as the aim of their organization. The loan fund will be used in order to assist worthy students of the college, who are in financial difficulties, to get through college without worrying about bills. The club hopes to increase the fund by presenting several programs each term, thus this Fashion Review is to be the first of many affairs which the members of the Parent Faculty Club are planning to present.

Calendar Outlined Here On Electing Student Officers

Nomination week begins April 6, and terminates April tenth. During this week all petitions for the nominations of candidates must be obtained from President Kay O'Sullivan or Secretary Alice Zander, and the necessary number of signatures filled out. The petitions should then be turned in to the Student Body office as soon as possible, as all nominees must be checked over as to scholarship and general eligibility before they can become candidates.

Campaign speeches will be made on Thursday, April 16.

San Jose Triumphs Over State In Meet By Decisive Margin

New Constitution Made For State, College To Vote

Marjorie Phillips Acts As Chairman Over Committee Made Up Of Executives

With Marjorie Phillips as chairman, the Constitution Committee consisting of Muriel Jacobs, Ninetta De Luca, Don Horner, Bob Petersen, Elena Foppiano, Marion Donaldson, and Kay O'Sullivan—members of the Executive Board—has been working on the new San Francisco State Constituion.

M. Phillips

As the college has outgrown its old buildings and new standards are continually taking the place of old traditions, so the old methods of student government have passed from the realm of active usefulness. It becomes necessary for the Student Administration to assume new duties and further powers in order to make the practical adjustments necessary to meet the new conditions. Therefore — the need for a new Student Body Constitution.

The aforementioned committee has been working diligently and with earnest effort toward building a constitution that is second to none and out of which may grow a student government of the highest order.

State's entire future, its hopes for collegiate supremacy, active history out of which will come its new traditions—Everything—depends upon this new constitution and the manner in which it functions.

Among the new items comprised in the constitution are: A Board of Publications, a Board of Finance composed of both students and faculty, the establishment of the Womens' Association, the provisions for the election of student body officers, and the organization of several new committees including a Student Service Committee and a State Rally Committee.

The new constitution is about to be presented in full to the Student Body for approval by popular vote. The Executive Board urges that every student consider the constitution carefully and vote accordingly, mindful of the fact that much time and conscienciously effort has been put into its construction.

BIG PUBLICATIONS DINNER PLANNED

The Press Club, in cooperation with the publications group is planning a large publications dinner on Wednesday, April 15. Plans have already been made, and the organization of them is rapidly going forward.

Rosalyn Hyde, president of the Press Club, is the chairman for the affair, while Mildred Scott, editor-in-chief of the Bay Leaf will act as presiding chairman. Many of the students participating in the publications of the college are working hard to make the affair even more brilliant than last year's.

Betty Gilchrist, chairman of the day had worked hard with her committee to present the group with a good time, get-acquainted spring informal affair.

THRILLS PROVIDED

Stan Smith Features With Close Finish; Pritchard Wins

Coach Arian Cakebread's undefeated San Jose State freshmen track and field team chalked up another victory Thursday, defeating San Francisco State 74 to 48 on the San Jose track.

Smallest Margin Held

Although the local aggregation llost by a decisive score, they had the satisfaction of holding the Spartans to the smallest margin obtained this season. San Jose beat Modesto Junior College by scoring 101 points and in other meets almost identical superority was displayed.

Earning twenty-five points in six events, that rambling freshman, Charley Stitch, was the outstanding star of the meet. He won the 100 yard dash, both hurdle races, and broad jump; placed second in the 220 yard dash, and tied for second in the high jump to carry away unparalleled honors. His time in the high hurdles, 15.7 seconds, is the best of the season.

Johnson Leads Events

Berger Johnson, S. T. C.'s best field performer, won the javelin and discus events and was second in the shot put, giving him second high point honors. Berger earned five digits in the spear tossing contest after trailing until his next to last throw. On the fifth heave, he outdistanced the field by four feet.

Every race on the program was a thriller. Stan Smith, who has yet to be beaten while running for S. T. C., won the quarter mile run by less than a yard to top the list of features.

"A dramatization course that I once instructed had a group of men in it who really entered into the spirit of what they were representing." This was Miss Casebolt telling some prospective teachers about feeling their part when they acted. "These men fought with such gusto that Miss Hussey came upstairs to caution lest they loosen the chandelier below." The object lesson had struck home. Posterity's teachers began acting with such vigor as to crumble the very walls. Surely such sincere acting had never before been seen—what stomping and scuffling! "Say, the chandeliers are shaking," said Miss Hussey's voice. The teachers became very happy; they had succeeded—Miss Hussey had come upstairs.

Officer Removed From His Office

At the last meeting of the High Sophomore class, Frank Howard, former yell leader was removed from his office because of excessive absences from class meetings. Upon his removal, Dot Bartels was elected yell leader in his place.

It is a rule that if an officer is absent from class meetings three times without an excuse he shall be removed. For this reason Dot Bartels will take Frank Howard's place as yell leader for the class of May '33.

Because of the fact that his niece, Roberts. James, is a pupil at the Frederic Burk School, Mr. Gus Anderson consented to talk, March 17, to the students who are doing their practice teaching in the school. Since Mr. Anderson was a guide in Russia for the past six years, he was especially able to give a vivid picture of the present political and economic conditions in that country. His lecture was illustrated by recent pictures of Russia.

Third "Noon-Dance" Scheduled For Tomorrow

Class Tea Held April 1 Proved To Be "Big Success"

Dominant Theme Of Day Was Color Scheme Carried Out In Gay Orchid, Green Harmony

An impressive spring tea was held on April 1, in the Activities Room by the class of Dec. '33. The chairman of the affair Dot Guinn, and her assistants, Francis Arenson and Mary Sperry, carried the color scheme out in orchid and green with spring flowers decorating the room.

The hostesses of the affair were dressed in afternoon dresses and wore corsages of gardenias. The hostesses were: Francis Arenson, Sophie Davis, Sylvia Anonzata, Katherine Semple, Marie Stanton, Hermine Vujevich, Mary Sperry, and Dorothy Guinn.

As to refreshment, daintily molded Easter bunnies and eggs of ice cream were served.

Bridge, Whist or Rummy, were played by members of the class and an entertaining program was presented through the efforts of members of the class. Leora Tambling and Brenda Hargrave gave a dialogue, Francis Burge and Claude Orwin rendered an exhibition dance, and for the great surprise of the day, Ailleen Broderson, former Freshman class president, entertained with some of her delightful songs.

The prizes for the games at each table were boxes of chocolates wrapped in orchid and green, the predominating colors of the day.

Besides the members of the class who enjoyed the affair, many members of the faculty also were present. Dr. and Mrs. Roberts, Dean and Mrs. Du Four, Dr. and Mrs. Arnesen, Miss Eva Levy, Miss Lea Reed, Miss Marion Barbour, and Mrs. Hilda Keel-Smith attended.

Because the affair was so so successful, the members of the Dec. '33 class are hoping to make such an occasion a traditional one.

Home Tracksters Take First Places

Ellsworth Pritchard's victory in the mile run was attained only after he had sprinted the last 200 yards to overcome Clemo, San Jose man. Pritchard hit the tape after 4 minutes and 43 seconds had elapsed for a new mark in competition.

The sprint races found Ed Henry and Charley Stitch battling it out for equal honors. Stitch opened the meet with a hairline decision in the 100 yard dash; and Henry turned the tables in the 220, winning by two yards in 22 seconds.

The San Francisco tracksters trailed first places in six events, none of which were followed by a second place; while San Jose athletes accounted for only three 1, 2 combinations. This is rather a unique situation compared with other meets.

The difference in the final score is represented by San Jose's superior number in all the places. They captured two more firsts than S. T. C., four more seconds, and four more thirds. The only tie of the meet was registered in the high jump. Hal Garden and Stith both failed at five feet six inches while Parks cleared that height to win.

K. P. Club To Be Crossed Off First

It has been rumored about that President Roberts is planning to banish the Kindergarten Primary Club and to expel many of its members because of a recent "whoopee" celebration held by that club.

In the wee small hours of a afternoon this month, the students on the campus were startled from a sound slumber by sounds of wild shrieks and unseemly laughter from

State's Mystery-Drama To Be Given For San Jose --- Maybe

Because the last production of the College Theatre play "The Black Flamingo," was an outstanding success, a bid for reproducing the play at San Jose Teachers College is being very carefully considered. The plan for this performance is that San Jose College will pay the expenses and reap the profit, with the San Francisco College just being responsible for the play itself.

Compliments are still being proffered those people who were in any way connected with this outstanding production. Bill Connolly, the romantic and colorful hero, has received an offer to play "Hamlet" from an amateur company in this city. Don Pryor, is seriously contemplating accepting a proposal from the Universal Scenery Company, to cast away his books in quest for education, and make scenery for leading Hollywood pictures.

It has also been suggested by various students in this College and people who have seen the first showing of this play, that the play be given again in the Frederic Burk Auditorium, for the benefit of those who did not have an opportunity to see it. This, however, is being considered by the College Theatre. But so far nothing has been definitely decided.

On April 12, the College Theatre is planning a Boat ride to Paradise Cove. Fred Masson is chairman of the affair and Lena Watt is in charge of the food committee.

Publications Dinner

The main dining room of the Women's City Club has been procured, and bids will be on sale in the bookstore for one dollar. Students in the college are invited to come and bring their friends. However, the room will only accomodate one hundred, so persons interested should procure their bids as soon as possible.

Meanwhile as an official welcome to new members of the organization and of the publication group, the Press Club held an informal tea yesterday afternoon in the Student's Activities Room.

Dot: "I hear Chester was arrested."

Kay: "How come?"

Dot: "He tried to steal a march on Sousa."

Student Capsizes In Great Lake Alma Den

Ruth Maddux, S.T.C. student, met with a very dampening experience last week at Lake Alma Den, when the skiff in which she was rowing, in company with a former Berkeley High School student, capsized in the middle of the lake. Fortunately Ruth was clad in a red bathing suit so that her new sport clothes were not damaged. Ruth seems to have an unusual affection for water bodies. A few months ago she fell in Lake Merritt, Oakland.

Attention! Students

Students who are enrolled in P. E. 133, 12a, 12b, and 12c can get overnight books from the library at one o'clock on Tuesdays and Thursdays. You must give your name to Mrs. Lyons and she will check the official list given her by Miss Holtz.

Entrance requirements to Mills College have undergone a complete revision.

Entire Student Body Is Invited To Take Part Over In Gymnasium

Jolly Time Put On By Glee Club Fans In Activities Room

Recently sixty members of the Glee Club held a "get-together" in the Activities room at four o'clock. The afternoon was spent in playing games and dancing the Virginia Reel and other old-fashioned dances. As each guest entered the room, a picture of some prominent person was pinned to the back of his clothes and later in the afternoon the members tried to recall the names of the pictures they had seen. They wrote as many names as they remembered, and the winner received a small toy dog. This game was conducted by Miriam Snider.

The next game was also a guessing contest. Mildred Roof, a member of the club, played selections from the choruses of popular songs and the guests wrote down as many as they recognized.

A novel idea, a curiosity shop, was set up earlier in the afternoon and was left on the table during the entire program. Just before the guests went home they tried their luck at guessing the significance of as many articles on the table as they could. Ralph Cioffi won the prize for this game — a duck on wheels.

Tea and doughnuts were served by Vivian Brewer, chairman of refreshments, and the members of her committee. The success of the affair was due to the efforts of its chairman, Mildred Scott, and her committee.

New Sub-Committee To Solve Problems

With a very animated discussion, the Student Affairs Committee held a session Wednesday, March 25, from 5:30 until 9:20 o'clock.

The major discussion developed around the consideration of a report of the sub-committee appointed to make recommendations for the Student Body Fees and Budget.

Catherine O'Sullivan was appointed the new chairman of the subcommittee and those working with her are: Miss Florence Hale, Mrs. Blanche Ellsworth, Alice Rich, Allen Wyatt, Ciwa Griffiths, Margaret Lemon, Viola Giesen, Dot Williamson, Dean David Cox, and Miss Eva Levy.

A new dead-line, April 10, has been set for the 1931-32 catalog by Mr. Carlos Mundt, chairman of the publicity committee. By that time all material from the instructors must be in the hands of the committee.

Many new courses will be offered, and numerous variations will be made in the present courses.

After seventy-five years of existence, Lowell High School, the oldest pre-secondary school in California, is to receive a school library.

State Banner To Be Bought With All Dance Money

One of the most successful noonday dances ever held on the campus was the one sponsored by the men of the college Thursday, March 6. The affair was the first of a group of noon-day dances to be given every other Thursday in the gym for the purpose of raising enough money to purchase a STATE banner.

The profits of the first dance netted nine dollars. The second netted five dollars. Tomorrow, the third of these dances will be given. The chairman, Sid Trager, feels that it is not necessary to urge those who attended before to come again. The social success of the affair far exceeded the financial success. He does think, however, that each and every student should interest himself in helping to get the STATE banner and should work with the committee to put the dances over.

The tickets, which will cost ten cents, will be sold each time by the members of the committee in the book store and at a table which will be placed in the main hall of the old college building. The men students are especially urged to attend as it is their group who is sponsoring these dances.

A new member has been added to the committee—Marian Donaldson, vice-president of the student body, who will represent the Women's Athletic Association.

The orchestra, under the leadership of Frank Howard, will start playing promptly at twelve-five. So students are requested to come early.

New Minor Offered

For the first time in the history of the college, courses for those students wishing to minor in Physiology will be available, beginning next semester. Only Kindergarten-Primary or General-Elementary majors will be eligible.

Three fields are offered from which the students may select their courses. They are: Physchology in Educational Practice, a course devised to be especially helpful for prospective teachers; Personality and Mental Hygiene, an extremely interesting and necessary course; and the Physchology of Subnormal Children, a course designed for those students who anticipate instructing subnormal children. Beside the groups suggested, electives in each field will be available.

Senator Norris proposes to abolish the electoral college. Might as well. Nobody ever hears anything about its team.

STATE, SAN JOSE TO HOLD BIG DAY

MODESTO NOSES OUT STATERS IN HARD-WON MEET

State, Modesto Collect Seven 1st Places; Henry Captures Sprint Races By Very Easy Margin

Cinching victory only after they had taken first and second in the javelin throw, the highly touted Modesto Junior College track and field team eked out a 62 to 60 margin over S. T. C. Saturday, March 28, at Modesto.

With only two events to be contested and the score tied at 54 all, Pederson tossed the spear 174 feet 6 inches to win easily. Waterbury picked up the necessary three points awarded second place with a 171 foot throw, which nosed out Johnson of State by a foot.

Races Are Close

Replete with other closely contested events, the meet was a thrilling battle throughout. Close races were witnessed in the 880 yard run, low hurdles, and relay; while the broad jump was the only field test to cause excitement.

An idea of the close match can be noticed in the division of places. Modesto won seven firsts as did State, seconds were divided seven to six, and thirds six to seven. Purple and gold were the dominating colors in track events and blue and white in field contests.

Emerson Harvey, Pirate's negro star, was high point man of the meet with three first places, a total of fifteen points. Runer Stone, consistent S. T. C. athlete, was second individual scorer with eleven digits. Harvey defeated Stone in both hurdle races to provide a surprise in that department.

Modesto Takes Shot

In the sprint races local men, Henry, Buchanan, and Alderman, scored clean sweeps. Henry led the group in the century with a 9.9 seconds mark and came back to grab the 220 in 22 1-5 seconds. Modesto took sweeps in the shot put and high jump to balance these performances.

Coach Cox's best quarter miler, Stan Smith, celebrated his return to the team with another victory in the 440 yard run. Paul Gschwend and Ellsworth Pritchard led the field in the 880 and mile run respectively. Second to Pritchard in the four lap race was Rudolps Rudd, who ran his best race of the season.

Five records established in previous meets were broken and one equaled in this dual contest. Ed Henry's marks in the sprints are the best, Gschwend's record, 2:04, in the 880 is likewise low; and a 174 feet 6 inches throw in the javelin has no peer. The 11 feet leap in the pole vault has been paralleled twice.

Interclass Swimming Meet Held Tuesday; Sophomores Triumph

The Sophomore class, May '33 and December '33, won first place in the W. A. A. Interclass Swimming Meet that was held Tuesday, March 31, at the Y. W. C. A. pool. The sophomores made 29 points out of all the events. The junior and senior classes came in second with a total score of 25 points and the freshmen took third place with 14 points.

The 50 yard free style and the plunge for distance was won by Betty Lohman who placed first place in both of these events. The relay race and medley race was won by "Babs" Gettemy, manager of the swimming meet. "Bud" DeHay and Margaret Graham came in first in the elementary back tandem and "Bud" DeHay came in first in the side stroke for form. The horse and rider was won by Frances Kunz and Miriam Snider, and the free style done with legs alone, was won by Erma Bergman.

The class managers were Mildred Bowers for the freshmen, Marie Stanton for the Sophomores, and "Bud" DeHay for the Juniors and the Seniors. Miss Doris Holtz, P. E. instructor, was the referee, Mary Sperry was clerk, Betty Stevenson was scorer, Margaret Downing was timer, and Gladys Benerd was starter and announcer. The finish judges were Mrs. Katherine Bridge and Elsie Shulte.

The class stunt that was judged for its originality, was won by the Freshmen. Betty Lohman did some fancy diving such as the high spy dive, morning prayer dive, bicycle dive, jewish dive, and dying swam dive.

A very clever folk dance was done in the water by the P. E. 133 group. A water ball was presented to the freshmen manager and the swimming meet badge was presented to Marie Stanton, manager of the sophomore class.

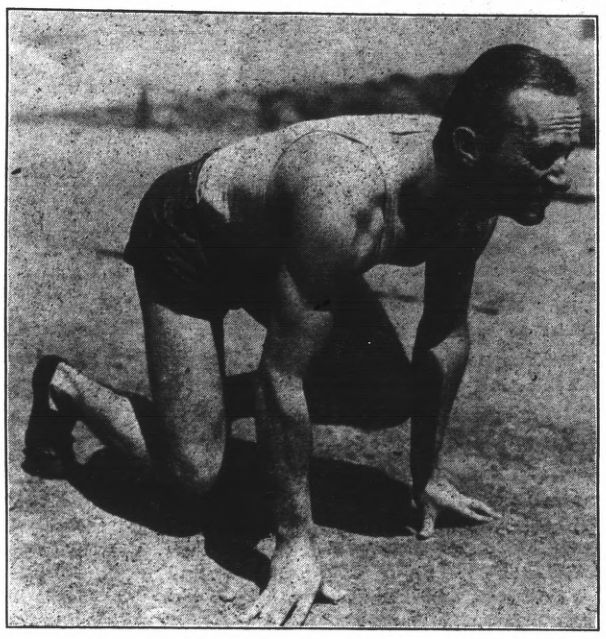
Tumbling Club Will Give Good Program

A meeting of the Tumbling Club was held Wednesday, April 1 at 12:00 o'clock in the gymnasium. A program to be staged at the W. A. A. Play Day was planned by Lillian DeHay, president, and was presented to the members of the club. With the assistance of Mrs. Katherine Bridge, sponsor of the club, the student members intend to practice every day at 12 o'clock. The program that was presented at the Frederic Burk Auditorium, Friday, March 13 will probably be repeated at this performance. Since the club did not meet during mid-terms, every member is urged to attend the practices.

A lady motorist was driving along a country road when she spied a couple of repairmen climbing telephone-poles. "Fools!" She exclaimed to her companion, "they must think I never drove a car before."

- STATE SPRINTER WINS -

ED HENRY, San Francisco sprint ace, collected three first places in the Modesto and San Jose meets. He has not lost a 220 yard race, and is responsible for the best times registered in both dashes. Ed's best mark in the century is 9.9 seconds; and in the longer sprint, 22 seconds.



Races, Eats, Fun Had Out Rollerland Rink

The Womens' Athletic Association held a roller-skating party Wednesday, April 1, at Rollerland Auditorium, Oakland. Lois Gillmore, chairman of the evening, planned the program with the assistance of Margaret Mareck.

A very clever stunt was put on in order to carry over the April Fool idea. The races started at 7:30, and at 10:30 the women went upstairs to the dining room in the balcony and had a buffet supper. Those who attended were Doris Nystrom, Marie Bushell, "Red" Mareck, Gladys Benerd, Marion Donaldson, Margaret Graham, Maryan Rice, Audra Richardson, Marie Regli, Marjory Cocking, "Babs" Gettemey, "Bud" DeHay, Barbara Mason, "Kay" Prendergast, Margaret Downing, and Marie Spezia.

COACH COX says

In view of the fact that interest in college and high school baseball is wanting, it might be well to find the cause. The greed to win and make money by those in charge of big league teams has been a contributing factor.

As soon as a boy becomes proficient he is told of the wonderful possibilities on a high class team and signed up, leaving school. Usually he is unprepared for the "big time" and shifted about a great deal, going from one club to another. The sad part comes in a few years when the boy is on his way home, with nothing more than a valuable lesson learned. Where will he turn next? He has no training.

Can baseball in school exist under such conditions as the above? The school and coach are left in a lurch after every case, and this material is hard to replace.

State Team Drops Moragan Net Match

Although playing in excellent form and displaying for the first time signs of fight and team play, the State tennis team dropped a hard fought match to the St. Mary's netmen. The final score stood seven matches to two in favor of the veteran Moragan team. Throughout the matches a strong wind blew, making accurate placement difficult for those unaccustomed to such conditions.

The winners for S. T. C. were Ray Allee and Harry Marks. Allee played in peak form to vanquish his oponent, 2-6, 8-6, 6-3. Marks, who has been a consistent winner in previous matches, again came through to the tune of 2-6, 9-7, 6-4.

The closest match of the day was that run off by Allee and Lewis against Steinback and Higgins of St. Mary's.

The score at the end of the hectic struggle that took place was 6-3, 7-9, 3-6. Friedman of St. Mary's was extended to his best game to down Thatcher.

Accommodations, every member of the S. T. C. team agreed, were perfect. An enormous luncheon was served and swimming privileges extended to the players. The trip by motor car was another enjoyable feature of the match.

Singles

Allee vs. Grave 6-2, 6-8, 6-3 (S)

Thatcher vs. Friedman 2-6, 5-7 (S.M.)

Carson vs. Steinback 1-6, 3-6 (S.M.)

O'Rourke vs. Higgins 0-6, 1-6 (S. M.)

The INSIDE STORY

"Moco" Woodsworth, it is rumored, has decided to go in training. Here is the way "Moco" put it. "You see, my weight must be brought down. I've decided that 235 pounds is a bit heavy, so tell all the women that I am going to cut my marcel down, take a manicure, and lay off snicker bars.

* * *

The Inside Story takes it's hat off to our old pal Hal Garden, for this week's best fairy tale, "Why They Call Me 'Dead-Eye.'"

* * *

A good way to start in training for the coming football season is to attend the Noon-Day Dances. If all the men of the college would support the dances with the same spirit that the women do, that big, STATE banner would soon adorn the front of State's future rooting sections.

* * *

Whether State turns out a billiard team next season is rather doubtful. We may rest assured that if State decides to have one, it will not lack for partisans. "Trick Shot Crowley" and "Pocket Poll" Howard have allready started training. First reports on the playing of these two stellar athletes was that after knocking the billiard balls around for two hours without sinking one, they decided that they would still have time to make their Natural Dancing class.

"DO UNTO OTHERS"

"Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." This ancient proverb is frequently quoted, but how often is it abided by? College is one place where no thought is given to this matter. Upon entering the library one sees card parties, gossips' conventions, and various other occupations which are entirely out of place in such a room.

However, this attitude is not wholly the fault of the students. The faculty members who are continually preaching about how students should act once they have entered the library, are the ones who come in and stand about and talk and laugh aloud.

Thus the students get the attitude of "why worry about our talking, when the faculty does it"?

SPRING, OR WHAT ?

'Tis truly spring. Already we notice a widespread reluctance to do work. Already we can see a general easiness with which we slump in our chairs. So soon can we readily turn our heads from paper and pencil on past window to a beckoning and natural greeness. Even now there moves within us a restless spirit which threatens to lead weak flesh along a non-restistant path.

A vision, a very dim one, a kind of goddess of wisdom, vaguely outlined appears and disappears. Now it prods to keep us in the traces. Now it thrusts us back into a streaming file which must not slide but pull.

We cannot, surely, mock this vision lest our vernal equinoxial rise in temperature become chronic and we find ourselves the hare in the race.

THINK THIS OVER

Large campuses, winning teams, sophisticated co-eds and egotistical upper classmen do make a college. But why? Simply because they throw about the college an atmosphere that is palpable, an atmosphere that is recognized by the world at large, an atmosphere that wins students, respect, and admiration.

S. T. C. has a fairly large campus. Our teams, although embryonic, are potential victors in years to come. Our co-eds . . . Our upper and lower classmen . . . ?

The difference between a real college atmosphere and one that is weak and peurile is the difference between maturity and inmaturity. Think that over.

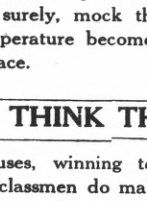
OPINION

It seems to be the opinion of many students in STATE that our college should have a more lively, up-to-date paper. Since this opinion is also that of the acting editor of today's publication, this BAY LEAF is what you got!!! Just one more step, it is hoped, toward what we all want and NEED.

Vice-Prexy Chalks Up As "Prominent Pebble"

Did you ever notice a tall broad-shouldered, smiling individual wearing a polo coat and having a decided attraction for that corner of the Book Store where the salted peanuts are sold? Was she surrounded on all sides by other individuals who are known for their prowess in athletics? Were all of them engaged in animated discussion of various kinds, punctuated here and there with shrieks of mirth and perhaps a brief demonstration of a lovely spring dance or the gyrations of what is believed to be a graceful adagio? Well, the central figure is none other than our Student Body Vice-President, Marion Donaldson.

MARION



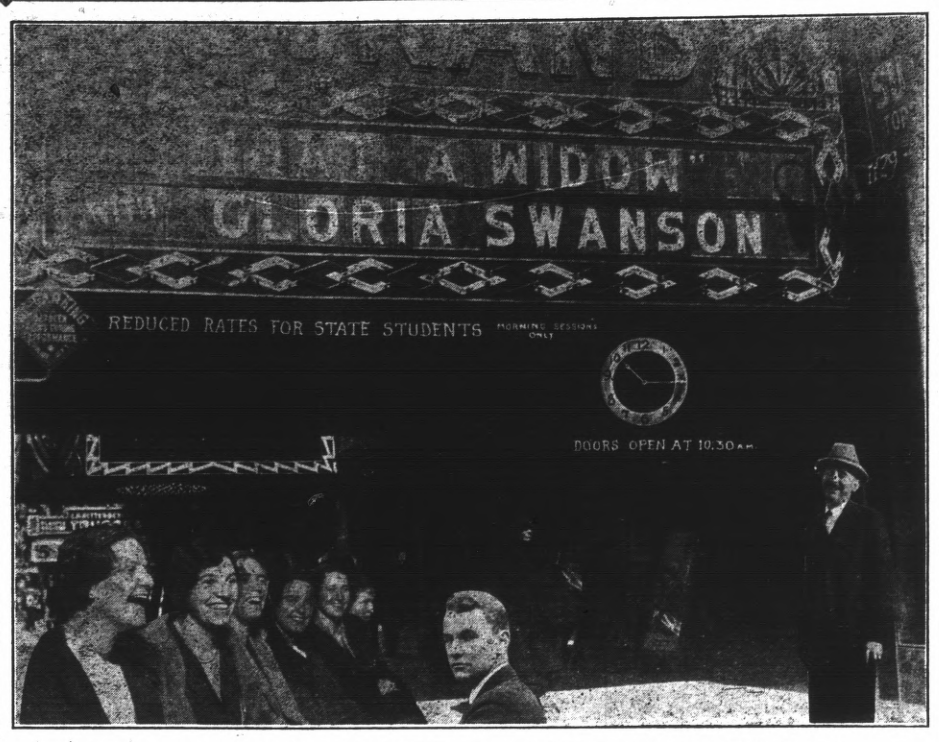
Marion has held probably more positions of importance than anyone else in college. A capable executive, she is friendly, jolly and good-natured, with more patience than even she, herself, is aware of (some people can bear witness to this.)

Among Marion's favorite recreations is swimming. She is one of the best swimmers who takes part in this sport at our college. In fact she likes anything associated with water (she has washed her face of her own accord ever since she graduated from grammar school).

A member of Phi Lambda Chi, W. A. A., Executive Board, Student's Affairs committee, co-chairman of assemblies, and prominent in all Student Body and class affairs, Marion still finds time to join her friends in daily get-togethers, and to make posters for every nameable college occasion.

A capable officer, prominent athlete, and decided leader—that's our vice-prexy. More power to her!

At It Again, Eh? How About Cutting Out Some Cuts?



HERE'S SOME INSIDE INFORMATION ON GRAND CUTTING PROPOSITION

One of the reasons why there are so many cuts in STATE might be traced to the above picture which was purposely "composed" by the BAY LEAF in an attempt to show WHY STUDENTS LEAVE CLASS. The BAY LEAF goes further to state that it is at such weak moments as the above that the scholastic records of the students is lowered. And when many such moments occur, it means that drastic methods are taken with the students concerned. There is much grief.

It seems that somehow or other, a mistaken idea about the whole cutting situation is extremely popular around this college. Students think that they are allowed as many cuts in each course as the number of units in that course. In other words, a three unit course entitles one to a three cut holiday. SO THEY THOUGHT!!! BUT AH . . . WOE IS THEIRS!!!!

Actually, students' misconception of this pertinent cutting question has brought about the abrupt leave of quite a few "would-be" scholars. But sympathy is all one can give these down-and-outers now. THE DAMAGE IS DONE!

Maybe too many Gloria Swanson specials . . . who knows? At least, statistics DO show that theatres stand first on the program in regard to "Why Students Cut." Shows, somehow, seem to be a good drawing-card! Though shows are not the only attraction!!!

But, nevertheless, this is the point which the BAY LEAF is trying to get over:—

There is no legitimate "cut" recognized by the faculty of this college. All absences from classes are recorded in the office for reference. Students whose scholarship and "cutting" ability correlate are warned that they had better not participate in the fictitious event pictured above.

... TERTIUM QUID ...

TODAY, I'm going to give you a little eye-opener. So draw up a chair, 'cause if you're the one I'm talking about, you might NEED it!

More than once, a cute little blond in this college mentioned to me that certain people around here have an awful habit of hopping into her car whenever they feel like it. But this girl—let's call her Dot— put up with this sort of thing for quite a while since she's a "good fellow." She just flicked away other people's ashes, and brushed out other people's papers and remaines of food, and gave the car a through cleaning every Saturday.

But one day, Dot was just about to drive away from STATE when she breathed in a big whiff of smoke. She whirled about, looked at the back seat, and sure enough! Right smack in the center of the new upholstery was a big burnt patch about a FOOT square!!! The doings of a burning cigarette, no doubt!

Well—that was the last straw. So, from then on, she locked up the car—pals or no pals!!

A couple days later, she dashed out to her car and pulled out the key to unlock the door. BUT WHY?? For when she turned the knob, she all but got knocked senseless. THE DOOR — BROKEN IN BY CERTAIN SO-AND-SOS—FELL RIGHT OFF ITS HINGES INTO THE STREET!!!

All right . . . four more dollars she paid out for repairs!

A week or two passed. Then one day, Dot and her mother drove out to buy a Spring hat or two. And right in the thick of the Market Street traffic Dot yelled, "QUICK, Mother! JUMP OUT OF THIS CAR!!!

And mother jumped! Dot swung the car into the curb—and OUT she slid! For the WHOLE FRONT OF HER CAR WAS IN SMOKE!!!

Dot called for help. Immediately a flock of young fellows rushed over to put out the fire. And when they lifted up the hood—PHOOEY —what a cloud of smoke hit them in the eye!!! But luckily, in a few minutes, they managed to check the blaze. NO LIVES LOST—Although the fire had a darn good chance to blow Dot and Mama clean to KINGDOM COME!!!

But this is the point:—

Some of you out there have absolutely no consideration for other people's property. With a pass key or something, you manage to break your way into people's cars and do whatever you darn please in them.

For instance: — You sit in the front seat, and wiggle back and forth in such a way as to turn on and off the lighting switch. And this procedure, mark you, is exactly what caused the flames in Dot's car down on Market Street. The lighting circuit shorted and caught on fire. Some more of somebody's dirty work!

But anyway, here's your warning:—Breaking into other people's machines and stealing other people's property are two things around here which are going to stop and stop PRONTO!!!

Freshmen Without Class Saw Scepter

"What about the saw?" That is just what the freshmen class would like to know, and are trying to find.

The whole discrepancy seems to come about by the fact that Sherry O'Rourke has been holding out.

It seems that the freshmen did see the saw, but that is about as far as they got. Now that they have seen it, they are anxious to gain possession of it, and this being their legal right, several of the more prominent men are just about ready to demand it.

Just what will happen is to be seen, but if Mr. O'Rourke would like to save the freshmen a lot of trouble and worry he should present them with the worthy saw, and "for keeps."

This would give them a chance to organize their longed for saw guard.

Most of the freshmen have never even seen the saw.

"Bay Leaf" Speaking Make It Snappy, Please

Luck? Nerve? Or just a nifty break for the BAY LEAF???

Anyway, the budding journalists of STATE are just on the verge of acquiring a brand new private line telephone for their own special use. Voila! And what's more—this 'phone is to be installed in the publication's office in a "jiffy."

HELLO

Maybe the staff becoming so professional with such a bunch of live-wire reporters that the time has come for "Hot news tips" right off the line. Last minute news DOES make a paper!!!

So the Bay Leaf is planning to station reporters in the office every blessed hour of the college day to receive these last minute calls.

Convenient, eh??

But here's the catch:

The publication's office will no longer be used as the habitat—of idle students; or as the lunch-room of calorie-go-getters. No! not even as a social hall for any students directly or indirectly connected with publications. It will, however, be used strictly as a staff office. BUSINESS, that's what — from now on!

Ah—for a bigger and better BAY LEAF!!!!!!

VIEWS OF THE NEWS

Gee— COLLEGE is a funny thing
With lots of funny WAYS—
It passes out a CINCH or two
And then some HOLIDAYS!!!

Our primal FASHION SHOW is on—
The first we ever had—
You ought to go to see JUST HOW
The MODERN MAID is clad!!!

When EASTER eggs were given out
The other day at school
No WONDER folks were scared to bite—
They thought it APRIL FOOL!!!

You always see a string of folks
Before a SNAPPY SHOW—
But "strings" inside the "libe" at four
Make other "strings look SLOW!!!

A peppy crowd that LOVES to step
To all the latest TUNES—
This peppy crowd just jams the gym

When A Joke's Not Funny

Dear T. N. T.—

A joke's funny when it's clever, but, why do some of our presumably "college students" give way to forging innocent persons' names to lurid, typewritten notes? Our post-boxes are available to all for the specific purpose of receiving official mail. If certain students are too tempted to misuse them by writing distasteful notes and signing other people's names, it is time these students renovated their sense of humor and finesse or be thrown OUT of college for infantilism.

I Repeat—Keep Quiet

Dear Tertium: T. N. T. or anyone else interested—

Meeow!!! Evidently some sassy coed resented my letter about noise in the library. We can thank Heaven this is not the attitude of the majority. We can be thankful that there are still those who live and let live! Think it over, youngster—How would you like to have people chatting around you when you were reading some 'ten-cent-a-week' book. If you want to talk—hire a hall, sell tickets and expound your silly prattle at a profit!! Why waste such selfish wisdom to college students?

Once again,
—A Working Student.

Good Sports? Bah!

There are certain people in this college who are certainly examples of rationalization. After hearing that a midterm "ex" was to be sprung on them, they got up and left the room. Then, to cover up their own lack of sportsmanship, they asserted that those who DID stay knew before hand that the examination was to be given. Certainly, their idea of sportsmaship is distorted.

—X. Y. Z.

Cut Down The Noise

Dear T. N. T.—

Isn't there some way to dispense with the children's making so much noise just outside the library? A person can put up with a low mumbling within the rooms, but to hear some child yell "1-2-3 beefsteak!" is just about the last straw. I say, "Let the youngsters play—but not under the library windows—especially when mid-terms roll along."

—Scrubbie

Paper, Paper Everywhere

Dear T. N. T.—

Why must thoughtless individuals throw all the papers that they do not want all around the campus? On Wednesdays especially, the campus is an absolute mess. Around the fence and under the benches, everyone throws his discarded BAY LEAF.

Why can't these people have a little consideration for others? It would be a good policy, I think, if a few ash cans were conspicuously placed for the use of these students.

On each floor of the Campanile at Berkeley there are rooms filled with paleontological specimens, skeletons and fossils, plant and animal. Graduate students in paleontology spend much of their time studying these relics in the tower.
